Stephen Mould, Head of Sotheby's Wine, Europe, said: "Our first Single Owner sale of the year – A Superlative Swiss Cellar – offered close to 1,000 lots and opened the season on a high. Prices for Mouton Rothschild 2000 were impressive, particularly for the magnums and Imperial. Showstoppers from Domaines Leroy and Rousseau saw fearsome bidding, with Rousseau vintages spanning 1990 to 2012 drawing passionate collectors from across the globe. From Bordeaux to Burgundy, Rhône and Italy, the sale marked a strong start to 2019 for Sotheby's Wine in London. We now look forward to our next sales in New York on 9th March and London on 20th March."
